Lokmangal College of Agricultural Business Management Celebrates Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti, Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti and Marathi Classical Language Day with Enthusiasm

Lokmangal College of Agricultural Business Management, Wadala, celebrated Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti, Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti and Marathi Classical Language Day with great enthusiasm under the National Service Scheme (NSS).

On this occasion, various activities were organized as part of the Seva Pakhwada initiative. The programme focused on creating awareness about cleanliness through the campaigns "Swachhata Hi Seva" and "Ek Din, Ek Ghanta, Ek Saath – Nation for Cleanliness," along with highlighting the importance and rich heritage of the Marathi language.

Mahatma Gandhi, who led India's freedom struggle through the principles of truth and non-violence, dedicated his entire life to the service of the nation. His thoughts, values and simple lifestyle continue to inspire people across the world. Through fasting, peaceful protests and non-violent movements, he created a strong challenge to British rule and played a significant role in India's struggle for independence. The celebration was organized to pay tribute to his invaluable contribution and to spread awareness about his ideals among students.

During the programme, students shared their thoughts and expressed their views on the lives, contributions and inspiring values of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri. They highlighted the importance of patriotism, simplicity, honesty, discipline and social responsibility.

The programme was presided over by the Principal of the college, Dr. Sachin Phuge, who graced the occasion. The programme was effectively compered by Pradnya Bansode, while the vote of thanks was delivered by Riya Sonawale, a second-year student. The celebration concluded with a message of cleanliness, national unity, social responsibility and pride in the Marathi language.
