NSS Activity 2026–27 | Samruddh Gaav Yojana at Pakani Village

Date:27th October 2026

With a vision of building a cleaner, healthier, and prosperous village, Lokmangal College of Pharmacy, Wadala, Solapur, organized an NSS activity under the Samruddh Gaav Yojana (समृद्ध गाव योजना) at Pakani village.

The initiative focused on three major areas:
🩺 Health Awareness: Promoting the rational use of medicines and creating awareness about antimicrobial resistance (AMR).
🧹 Cleanliness & Green Initiative: Conducting cleanliness drives and promoting the plantation of medicinal plants.
❤️ Healthy Lifestyle: Creating awareness about de-addiction and organizing health check-up camps.

The activity was conducted in the presence of Sarpanch Shri Balaji Yelgunde, Upsarpanch Shri Vijay Shinde, Talathi, and Gramsevak, who were felicitated by the college.

The activity was guided by faculty members Dr. Ranjit Shelke, Mr. Vaibhav Khatal, Ms. Preeti Kambar and Ms. Pooja Mane.

The programme was organized under the guidance of Vice Principal Dr. Rani Mhetre and Principal Dr. Vijaysinh Sabale with the kind permission of Secretary Dr. Anita Dhobale .

Through this initiative, NSS volunteers actively contributed to village cleanliness and community development, spreading the message of social responsibility.

🌿 Together for a Clean, Healthy, and Prosperous Village!
❤️ NSS Motto: Not Me, But You!
